

GULF COAST BREEZE.

J. LOVICK ADAMS, Editor,

CRAWFORDVILLE, FLA., Nov. 25 1898

VOL. 2. NO. 24

LOCAL

After this issue the BREEZE is no more.

Mr. James Smith is the proud papa of a fine baby.

A new postoffice between Woodville and St. Marks has been named Moody.

Cane grinding has been going on in earnest this week and most of our farmers are through with their syrup making.

Mr. W. W. Walker Jr., returned last week from Thomasville where he has been attending Stanley Business College.

We have been having fine hog killing weather this week but as there is no salt in town very few hogs have been killed.

Our merchants seldom if ever order a large amount of salt at one time, although the demand for it is constant. They seem to fear it will spoil on their hands.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Dickinson, of Dutton, are here visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Forbes. Mr. Dickinson is overseer for the Wright Phosphate Co., at Dutton.

Mr. Charley Rehwinkel one of Wakulla's most prosperous young farmers was quietly married last Sunday week to Miss Julia Allgood, a charming young lady of Leon.

Miss Florida Walker, after a pleasant visit to home folks here, returned last week to resume her duties at the asylum in Chattahoochee. She was accompanied as far as Tallahassee by Misses Lula Walker and Annie Griffin.

Mr. M. P. Harvey left this week to attend college in South Carolina, and several of Crawfordville's young belles are carrying their hearts in slings. Preston is an industrious Christian young man, and leaves legions of friends here who wish him much success.

Among those who attended the Gala Week at Jacksonville this week were Messrs. F. W. Duval, R. B. Council, J. L. Adams, and Misses Nattie and Bessie Walker, of Crawfordville. Those who have returned report a grand time.

Although fishing is the principal industry of Wakulla county, and thousands of sacks of salt are required to save the vast numbers of fish caught, there is not now a sack of this needful article to be bought in Crawfordville, and the Lord and our unenterprising merchants only know when there will be. This being hog killing time adds greatly to the inconvenience. This is a deplorable state of affairs, and if not remedied, is sure to produce its ill effect.

A bold, brave critic is Hon. War (w) Hoop Lawrence, Lord High Bill-striker for His Most Gracious Majesty Mark Hanna, and general campaign scawag of Middle Florida at large. Being utterly unable to find a single weak point in the arguments of Hon. Nat R. Walker and Hon. S. Pasco in the recent campaign, he makes a feeble attempt to ridicule them by reflecting upon the delivery of their speeches. These gentlemen are numbered among Florida's most forcible speakers, and the Hon. W. H. Williams to enjoy his little job (2) by himself.

Camp-Neal.

Prof. Geo. W. Camp left last Friday for Cordele, Ga., and returned Monday evening with one of North Georgia's most charming and popular young ladies, formerly Miss Della Neal, as his bride. The Cordele Hornet says this of the wedding:

"At the residence of Mr. A. T. Vonderau on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock, Prof. Geo. W. Camp, of Crawfordville Florida, and Miss Della Neal, of Villa Rica, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. E. Culpepper.

After the ceremony an elegant supper was served, and other social features enjoyed by quite a number of young people who were present to witness the ceremony. By appointment the contracting parties met here and were married. Prof. Camp is a prominent teacher in the Land of Flowers, while his bride was one of North Georgia's most popular young women. The couple left Sunday night for their future home in Florida.

The editor of the Cordele, Ga., Hornet advertises for 'a goose a turkey and a possum for Thanksgiving purposes. Well brother, if you were in our G favored Land of Flowers you wouldn't have to advertise for these delicious "vegetables." One day on our coast with a muzzle-loading shot gun would supply you with enough wild geese and turkeys to last a week, and in one night in the woods with a bob-tail hound our dog you could pluck enough 'possums to cook up all the 'yaller yams' you could collect from delinquent subscribers in two months.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

A reward of fifty dollars has been subscribed and paid in by a committee of citizens of Wakulla county and will be paid to any person who can and will furnish proofs sufficient to convict the person or persons who burned the mill house of Mr. W. C. Rouse on Sphepopy river in Wakulla county on the night of June 11th 1898.
